

How to apply

Applications are made online at the Academic Portal. Candidates should provide the following documents:

- Curriculum vitae;
- Letter of intent describing why you wish to enroll in the MAP-fis program;
- Digital copy of the certificates of First degree and MSc degree with final grade. Degrees of foreign Universities must have been previously recognized by Direção Geral do Ensino Superior or by a Portuguese Higher Education Institution. Please, see the DGES site <https://www.dges.gov.pt/en/pagina/degree-and-diploma-recognition>, or have the Hague Apostille (for countries that acceded to the Hague Convention).
- At least one and up to three reference letters.
- Reference of the university where you intend to register (attached form);
- Other documents relevant for the application (optional).
- Digital copy of Identity document (due to data protection regulations this is optional for Portuguese candidates; foreign students must upload copy of passport).

The documents submitted in the application is a responsibility of the candidate, who must submit the originals of documents whenever requested. In case of doubt about the elements relevant to the application or their authenticity, UMinho may request additional information from the applicant or their confirmation.

University for registration

Upon admission to MAP-fis you will register in one of the three MAP Universities. It should be the University where you plan to carry out your thesis, if you have already made such a decision. If not, you still have to choose one the three Universities, although you may change it at a later date.

Please indicate in which University you plan to register, upon admission.

University of Aveiro.....

University of Minho.....

University of Porto.....
